JNO. FRANCIS & CO.

—Reformers, where are you?
—Groceries and dry goods at Scott's.
—Engage a turkey for Thanksgiving.
—New goods lately received at Northrup's.
—The spelling school fever has broken out in Iola.
—H H Pulver went up to Atchison last Thursday.
—In the race for District Judge didn't Talcott run, though.
—Jno. Francis & Co. are closing out their stock of groceries.
—Mr. Seitz and family started to Texas last Wednesday.
—Call and examine Colborn's stock of fall and winter goods.
—Those candidates who had a platform to stand on went under.
—The epizootic prevails among the horses throughout the county.
—Mrs. Reed and family, former residents, are visiting friends here.
—Mr. H Reimert and family are visiting friends in Montgomery county.
—Ireland has received a fine lot of new piece goods. Call and see them.
—For neat visiting cards put up in boxes suitable for card cases, call at this office.
—Attend the Baptist church to-morrow evening and hear a sermon on temperance.
—District Court will be convened in this city one week from next Monday. There are seventy cases on the docket.

—Rev. Muth's pulpit was filled by Prof. Knox last Sunday morning and evening.
—Messrs Harlan and Smith got home from the Wichita fair last Thursday afternoon.

—Yates, the cash dry goods man, has received more new goods. Don't fail to give him a call.
—Pulver ran as a independent candidate for Justice of the Peace and goes up Salt river alone.

—There was lots of scratching done last Tuesday, but the Republican straight ticket came out ahead.
—Several prairie fires this week in the vicinity of our town; considerable hay and some corn destroyed.

—Notwithstanding the pastures have dried up Manger continues to supply his market with fat heaves.
—Prof. Knox will lecture on "Anglo Saxon Influence and Language," Thursday evening, Nov. 18th, 1875.

—The men from this county who took fast horses to the fair at Wichita last week, failed to take any of the purses.
—The REGISTER office returns thanks to F. W. Bartlett and lady for the nice cake that accompanied their marriage notice.

—The auction sale of furniture was postponed last Tuesday. Men were too much interested in the election to buy furniture.
—Mr. Allen, County Attorney of Neosho county, accompanied by his wife, has been visiting friends in our town this week.

—Mr. Cochran, living north-east of town, lost about one hundred bushels of castor beans by a prairie fire, one day this week.
—If Judge Talcott could have had a little more time so as to have thoroughly canvassed the district he would have got all the votes cast.

—For all kinds of work in the blacksmithing and wagon making line you will find it to your interest to call on Gorrell & Robinson.

—The Constitutional amendments have been carried in this county by a large majority. Twice a year is often enough for the Legislature to meet.
—Before the cold weather sets in examine your chimney and stove flues, and then if your house is not insured call on Bowls and take out a policy.

—Prof. Knox, of Baker University, delivered an instructive lecture, "An Hour Among the Birds," at the Methodist church last Saturday evening.
—In Anderson county we learn that the Republicans elected their entire ticket. The reformers in this part of the State had better try some other name.

—The Republicans of this county are realizing the fact that the Reform party only cry "reform" for the purpose of getting office, hence they are deserting it.
—It is a notorious fact that nearly all the people who are now seeking homes in our State are going directly to the counties where the herd law is in force.

—Mrs Whitney has moved into the house formerly occupied by Wm McClure, and Mr. McClure has moved into a residence on South Washington avenue.
—Either the people of this county are opposed to regulating the currency by the demands of trade or else they do have some regard for past party affiliations.

—Just call and examine the splendid assortment of stoves that Hartman & Casmore have recently brought on. You can find there any kind of a stove you may want.
—Married, in this city, October 31, by Rev. Thomas Bartlett, at the residence of Mr. James Simpson, Mr. Frank W. Bartlett of Iola, Kansas, to Miss Ada B. Simpson of Springfield, Illinois.

—The November number of La Crenne de la Creme, like all its predecessors, has a splendid collection of music for advanced players. Price $4 per annum; J. L. Peters, 843 Broadway, N. Y.
—John Harris was nominated by both parties for township trustee, but John McDonald, who was brought out by some of the Republicans a few days before the election, ran him a close race.

—There will be no services at the Methodist or Presbyterian churches to-morrow evening. Revs Muth and Clark dismissing their congregations that they may attend the Baptist church and hear the Rev. Mr. Floyd's sermon on temperance.
—From the progress prairie fires have been making this week it looks as though the prairies would soon all be burned over. A large amount of hay has been destroyed, but there is not much market for it and people don't seem to care much about it.

—F. W. Bartlett moved to Neosho Falls this week, having gone into partnership with W. A. Atchison in the law business. Before leaving our town Frank sensibly took another partner, the particulars of which are given under the head of "married."
—We are informed that one of our farmers in the northern part of the county, one day this week, fired the grass near his premises as a protection against a prairie fire which he thought was coming his way, and the fire which he put out burned up his castor beans.

—As the result of Lieut. Governor Salter's visit in the eastern portion of our county one of the townships gave Baylies a majority over Talcott for Judge. Salter will some day get salted.
—Quite a number of persons undertook the job of setting up till the vote was counted out last Tuesday night, but about midnight most of them thought better of it and went home.

Uncle Daniel Covert, who has for several weeks past been visiting his old home and friends in this county started last Monday for Iowa, where he will spend a couple of weeks and then return to Indiana. He proposes to move back to this county next fall.
